

Training in Mission 2016

PROGRAMME BRIEF

The Council for World Mission (CWM) has been investing in equipping the young people for the ministry and mission of its member churches since 1981. Through the Training in Mission (TIM) Programme, 10-12 participants from the churches are brought together for about seven (7) months of intensive mission training.

The pedagogical process of the Programme is the action-reflection model of learning. Over 350 young people have so far been changed for life with a new practical and radical understanding of what witnessing to Christ means. In every church, TIM participants are to be seen as living expressions of CWM's understanding of partnership in mission.

The Training in Mission 2016 will be held on 2nd May to 26th November. The closing date for the submission of applications is on 15th November 2015.

AIM OF TRAINING IN MISSION

The Training in Mission aims to:

- Provide training for life. It is intended to be a stage in Christian formation which helps each participant in a life-long involvement with the mission of the church.
- Offer training which provides wider vision; deepened commitment; and a strengthened sense of fellowship and partnership with other Christians around the world, particularly through CWM member-churches.

Further, "training" in Training in Mission is aimed at formation --- and the formation is for life. Recognizing the locus of mission as the 'public space', TIM is a learning process of enabling participants to discover perspectives and to develop skills for a life of witnessing. TIM is an enabling experience that allows the participants for an adventure of faith, rooted in God and enacted in the world. TIM is also a journey of transformation: dialectic of self and society. Though initiated three decades ago, CWM is constantly re-defining the content and methodology of the Programme

TRANSFORMATION AS THE PARADIGM

The pedagogical model of Training in Mission includes:

- Affirming the concept of building capacities for the churches consistent with the mission statement of CWM.
- Enhancing the scope for the church's public witness. Thus, while affirming the commitment to be in solidarity with the churches, the TIM will carve out a niche of enabling and empowering young people to explore and witness as disciples of Jesus Christ and members of the church, in the wider society.
- Practicing the Theology Statement of CWM which reflects a critique and resistance on the one hand, and an affirmation on the other. It is centered on a cosmic world view and rooted in a Christology that is liberative.

Selection Criteria

Participants in the Training in Mission must:

- Be 18 to 30 years old at the start of the programme, single, and not an ordained minister
- Be able to spend seven months away from home
- Be an active member of a CWM member church, as well as committed to serve the church upon return
- Preferably completed high school and or advanced training
- Be interested in exploring mission issues in an international and multicultural context
- Be able to relate well with others and mature enough to cope with stress
- Be proficient in English, as this is the main language of communication.

Applications must be sent initially to the Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand Global Mission for endorsement. Applications will then be forwarded by Global Mission to the Council for World Mission for the final decision.
